

April 1, 2023

Thirsty Thursday Mixers

West Meadowbrook Neighborhood Association hosted a special community get acquainted event at the Mexican Inn on Feb.23. An estimated 50 West Meadowbrook neighbors and guests attended the after hours get together. Thirsty Thursday's is a series of meet and greet events to encourage participation in the association and neighborhood projects. A second mixer on Thursday, March 30, brought 20 neighbors out to Hop Fusion. Watch for more opportunities for families and West Meadowbrook residents to gather in the future.

Zoning Cases in West Meadowbrook

Two cases in the neighborhood moved through Zoning and City Council in March. A triplex at 3701 Meadowbrook that was zoned A.75 was approved as an A.75 Planned Development duplex with a detached third dwelling. The property will revert to single family if it is sold. Three elderly women placed by the Salvation Army live in the triplex. The owner has committed to participating in the FWPD's crime-free multi-housing program. Also, on March 22, City Council unanimously approved on the recommendation of Zoning to rezone 3629 Meadowbrook Drive from commercial to single family. There was no opposition.

District 11 Candidate Forum

West Meadowbrook and 19 other neighborhood associations are hosting a District 11 candidate forum at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, April 3. Five candidates running for the City Council seat in this newly formed district have agreed to participate. Please come to meet fellow constituents and candidates for the new Council seat at Meadowbrook Poly United Methodist Church, 3900 Meadowbrook Drive, Fort Worth, Texas 76103. We look forward to seeing you there.

April 6 is Deadline to Register to Vote

City elections traditionally attract a low voter turnout, less than 10 percent of a city of 1 million people. To vote in citywide elections that choose elected officials who will decide so many issues important to neighborhoods, be sure you are registered and cast your ballot. Early voting, mail-in voting (for those who are eligible) , and in-person voting on May 6 are all options to fit anyone's schedule. Any registered voter can vote in any polling location in Tarrant County, an added convenience.

Upcoming events

April 1 - Easter Egg hunt, Eastside Community Garden, 2521 Clairemont, Fort Worth 76103, 10:30 a.m.

April 3 - Neighborhoods of District 11 Candidates Forum, MUMC Poly Church, 3900 Meadowbrook Drive, 6:30 p.m.

April 23 - Garden Party and Plant Swap, 1600-1700 Martel Avenue, 1-4 p.m. Activities will include FWISD STEM truck, plant swap, Master Gardeners presentation, Community Engagement and more. Get to know your neighbors at this special event on Martel Avenue between Benmar and Barnett.