West Meadowbrook launches membership drive - Join Us To See What's Next

West Meadowbrook Neighborhood Association is asking for your vote. Look for these yard signs near you. Use the QR code to link to the WMNA website, join online or ask questions of the board via email. WMNA meets quarterly with two events, a Spring Garden Party and Plant Swap on April 28, and the National Night Out with Reby Cary Library event in October. WMNA tackles code issues, zoning cases, community initiatives such as the sidewalk loop around Oakland Lake Park, and weighs in on ordinance changes, stop signs, derelict properties, and nuisance abatement. And that is just a snapshot of what WMNA means to the area. Visit westmeadowbrook.org for details on joining.

Spring Garden Party and Plant Swap on April 28

Bring your straw hats, plant carriers and kids to the second annual Spring Garden Party and Plant Swap at Oakland Lake Park pavilion. Plans are to exchange plant cuttings, seeds, or donated plants from 2-4 p.m. on Sunday, April 28. Decorate hats with spring flowers, swig some lemonade, meet Master Gardeners and Yardsmart volunteers to learn more about growing flowers or vegetables. Meet friends, make new ones. Samantha Newman, samantha.newman@gmail.com, is leading this event. Give her a hand.

Free trees for Meadowbrook

The City of Fort Worth is partnering with Meadowbrook Poly UMC to offer a selection of free trees for Meadowbrook residents. Deadline to sign up is March 15, so act fast. Go to MeadowbrookPolyUMC Facebook page to request trees. Or copy and paste this link into Google: <https://forms.gle/9WPNBgFgU5KVSVPe6>
